POLO GROUNDS, New York, Oct. 12.—Riding to victory on the strong right arm of "Shufflin'" Phil Douglas, their big spitballer, the Giants are on the way to a world's championship.

Douglas trimmed the valiantly fighting Yanks in the seventh game of the world's series here this afternoon, 2 to 1, in the hardest fought and most exciting game of the series. More, he took the great Carl Mays to another cleaning, winning two out of three games pitched against the Yanks' ace.

As a result of Douglas' victory, the Giants need but one more game to clinch the title. The series now stands four games to three in favor of McGraw's men.

Mays was great in defeat, for it was through no fault of his that the Giants got the break in the luck that enabled them to put over the winning run. With 2 down in the seventh inning, Ward, who had been playing an almost uncanny game at second, booted a grounder off the bat of Johnny Rawlings, who later scored on a timely swat by Snyder.

A big Columbus day crowd of more than 35,000 saw the game.

The story of today's game, play by play, follows:

Mrs. Warren Roberts of 617 East Elk avenue has been chosen as the Tuesday Afternoon Club's nominee in the American Legion Armistice Week Carnival Queen contest.

He also announced that the Ralph Brown studio, 215 North Brand boulevard, would give the queen one dozen photographs, to cost not more than $40.

Mrs. Roberts, whose candidacy is providing a real thrill in the contest, has not only been active in Tuesday Afternoon Club work, having served as treasurer, but she also is past worthy matron of Glen Eyrie chapter, O. E. S., treasurer of the Glendale Music Club, past president and present vice-president of Chapter L, P. E. O., and member of XVI social club.

It will be remembered that Mrs. Roberts was one of the four graceful Glendale women who rode in the prize-winning float entered by the local Elks in the floral parade of the 1915 convention.

Miss Emelie Hills Is Bride of Dudley Pigg

The many friends of Miss Emelie Hills and Dudley Pigg will be surprised to learn of their marriage in San Bernardino on September 23. These young people have long been engaged and planned to be married in the spring, but decided to give their friends and parents a surprise. So, chaperoned by an aunt of the bride, they slipped away and were married. Of course, their parents were much surprised, but none the less delighted when the secret finally leaked out.

Mrs. Dudley Pigg is the daughter of Mrs. Emelie Hills of 616 West Vine street, formerly of Philadelphia.

Mr. Pigg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pigg of 405 North Maryland avenue and for the past eighteen months has been employed by the city of Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Pigg will be at home to their friends after ten days at 528 North Jackson street.

Mass Meeting to Talk on High School Site

A public mass meeting will be held at the high school auditorium on the night of Tuesday, October 25, to discuss the proposed new high school site, according to plans formulated last night at the regular meeting of the high school board of education.

The report of the high school committee of the Chamber of Commerce was accepted and the board expressed itself as more than pleased with the conscientious manner in which the investigation had been conducted and well satisfied with the recommendation of the site at Broadway and Verdugo road.

"I am satisfied with the work of the committee," stated Dr. H. V. Brown, president of the board. "I think the site suggested is admirable."

OBSERVING COLUMBUS DAY

Today the banks are observing Columbus day. All honor to the man who discovered America and set the egg on end. Glendale has an avenue named in his honor and at one time there was a Christopher street here. Later it was changed to Tenth street and now is known as Garfield avenue.

SECTION MEETINGS OF TUESDAY CLUB ANNOUNCED

Dates Selected for Various Gatherings; Entertainment Pleasing to Members

Although yesterday was scheduled as an afternoon of entertainment at the regular meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, of which Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson is president, several unexpected matters of business came up and it was necessary to dispose of them at that time. One of these was the offer of $21,000 for the three lots owned by the club at the corner of Lexington drive and Brand boulevard, which offer was refused. Another matter was the decision of the club to nominate Mrs. Warren Roberts as the club candidate for queen at the Armistice week celebrations to be given by the American Legion.

The club was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, and minutes of the last meeting and also of the closing meeting of last year were read and approved.

Tells of Section Meetings

Mrs. W. L. Andrews, general curator, announced section meetings, especially emphasizing that the legislative section will meet the first and third Tuesdays instead of the second and fourth Tuesdays of every month. TOURIST HOTEL FOR BRAND AND WILSON BEING PROPOSED

Total of 150 Rooms Will Be Offered; Angelus Interests Are Back of Project

Plans for a hotel to occupy the corner of Brand boulevard and Wilson avenue where the Jewel City Undertaking establishment now stands were revealed at yesterday's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors.

Harry Tremaine, formerly of Minneapolis, and associates, who have recently purchased the Angelus hotel at Fourth and Spring streets, Los Angeles, are said to have an option on the local property and a scheme for financing a tourist resort here is now under way.

It was Mr. Tremaine's statement to Secretary James M. Rhoades that his 210 room house in Los Angeles could keep a 150 room hostelry in Glendale well filled with the overflow from the metropolis. In other words, the Angelus would be a clearing house for new arrivals in the southland.

Committee Is Active

The possibilities of the proposition appealed to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the hotel committee is devoting its time to aiding Mr. Tremaine.

Director Owen C. Emery declared that another hotel project would be announced within a very short time. Undoubtedly he referred to the plans of Anthony Ambrosini which include a five-story hotel, theatre and store building for the corner of Broadway and Glendale avenue.

In an interview this morning with a representative of The Glendale Evening News, Mr. Tremaine said:

"It is the plan of my associates and myself to put up an eight-story, 150-room hotel on the Brand boulevard-Wilson avenue site, and as soon as a few preliminaries are completed work will be started on the building.

"I believe that Glendale has need of a fine large hotel and I believe in the future of the city. As yet we are somewhat undecided about the second story of the structure. We may put in offices."

CITY SCHOOL BONDS WIN APPROVAL BY 957 TO 67 VOTE

People Practically Unanimous for Project; Improvements Start Soon, Is Belief

The city school bond election yesterday resulted in an overwhelming victory for Glendale's children.

The issue provides for $260,000 in bonds for school purposes. Steps will be taken to put them on the market as soon as possible by the grammar school board. Owing to legal technicalities, it will be about sixty days before the funds are actually available. However, now that the bonds have been approved by the voters, the school trustees are going ahead with tentative plans for the expansion of the local school system, they say.

The total vote cast was only 1024. The lightness of the balloting was explained by local "politicians" principally on account of the fact that many newcomers in the city do not yet possess the franchise and to the inconvenient voting hours for those who go to Los Angeles every day on business.

The number of votes cast for the bonds was 957 and the number cast against them was only 67. They were favored by about 275 more than a two-thirds vote. Only one citizen out of 15 voted against the bonds.

The largest vote was cast at the Intermediate school, which was the polling place for the most thickly settled precinct, including all the territory between Doran street on the north and Windsor road on the south. The balloting here was 554 to 40 which means that only about one out of every 15 voters disapproved the election. The total vote cast was 594.

The smallest vote was polled at the Cerritos school, the polling place for a comparatively thinly settled district south of Windsor road, only 199 citizens going to the polls. Here the vote was 177 to 22. This means that one out of every nine voters frowned upon the bonds. This was the largest proportion of opposition met during the entire election. Twenty-two voters failed to endorse the action of the school board.

The smallest opposition was registered at the Central school, the polling place for the district north of Windsor road. Here only five citizens out of 231 voters failed to mark an X after "yes" on the ballot while 226 voters endorsed the bond issue

MARTIAL SWING OF HYMN

Many hymns in the song books of modern churches, including some of the most popular and inspiring, are of martial swing and tempo. "Onward, Christian Soldiers" is the most popular of this class of religious songs. The Rev. Sabine Baring-Gould, English pastor, author and song writer, composed the words of "Onward, Christian Soldiers" in 1860. It was to be sung by children, and was written for a special occasion for which the pastor could think of no suitable marching song. He wrote it one night.

House mice have a habit of following the walls of a room as they run about, and a trap placed behind a table leg or small object where mice naturally run need not be baited.

The publishers of the Encyclopaedia Britannica once issued a booklet containing facsimile testimonial letters from prominent users of the work, one-tenth of whom mis-spelled the word "Britannica."

CLUB WOMEN CONTINUE CAMPAIGN AGAINST ANY FATTY ARBUCKLE FILM

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12.—The determination of southern California club women to keep before the public their disapproval of films featuring Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle is shown by the announcement today that the board of directors of the Los Angeles District Federation of Women's Clubs has ratified a resolution protesting against showing Arbuckle films, and those of other participants of the San Francisco Labor Day party.

The resolution requests the Federation's secretary to send copies of the club women's expression to "all newspapers, presidents of women's clubs and exhibitors of films."

Jackie Coogan Will Give Henrietta Ford Away; Public Invited

Tonight is the big night for Henrietta Smith Ford and some citizen of Glendale for it is the night that she is to be driven home by some fortunate resident of this city. Shortly after 9 o'clock she will be given away by Jackie Coogan.

A large multitude will be present. There will be excitement—yes, there will be much excitement. Henrietta's little four-cylinder heart is all in a flutter, her little tin body is all in a quiver. She is ready to start. Already Jesse Smith of the Ford agency and the boys of the Holy Name Society of the church have kissed her good-bye and bade her good luck.

Harry Girard, local singer and actor, will act as master of ceremonies. Miss Virginia Ainsworth, Lasky star, will sing. Miss Viola Yorba of Casa Verdugo will appear in Spanish costume and sing. Confidentially, it might be mentioned that her headgear is called a "mantilla." In case you are color blind her dress will be orange covered with a brownish shawl embroidered with red and yellow roses of large size. The songs waiting to be sung by her are "La Paloma" and "La Golondrina."

Jackie Coogan may make faces; you never know what "the Kid" is going to do next.

The last Tuesday in the month there will be an open meeting for members of the lodge, Pythian sisters and invited friends. There will be a program of entertainment and dancing.

"I want to thank the four members of the fire departmen for the especial care they took not to cause undue damage in putting out the little fire at our home, 443 Salem street, yesterday morning," said Mrs. R. E. Frey today. "I think they went about their work in a very efficient manner. An insurance adjuster, J. R. Williamson of Los Angeles, inspected the damage this morning.

They were particularly delighted with Glendale and spoke favorably of locating here at some future time.

The science of the weather and the atmosphere is called meteorology, and has very little to do with astronomy. Yet the public almost invariably confuses meteorologists with astronomers and calls upon the weather bureau for information about comets, sunspots, eclipses and the calendar.

Small diamonds have frequently been found in meteorites.

erature section, of which Mrs. F. L. Hollingsworth is curator, and both of which sections were in charge of the lunch concession at the San Fernando Valley Fair, presented Mrs. A. M. Williams with checks and cash totaling $426.04, which will be added to the building fund for a new clubhouse. Mrs. Williams, in turn, thanked Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Hollingsworth in behalf of the club for the splendid work done by them.

Candidate for Queen

Mrs. Hutchinson stated that the Tuesday Afternoon Club had been asked by the American Legion as to whether they desired to nominate a candidate for queen for Armistice week's festivities which are planned by the legion. After so deciding, Mrs. Warren Roberts was elected as nominee for the position of queen for the festivities. Mrs. Hutchinson stated that the members of the club had nominated Mrs. Roberts to success, as the word failure was not included in the vocabulary of Tuesday Afternoon Club members. Mrs. Roberts stated that in the event that she was chosen queen and received the $200 diamond ring, which is to go to the winner of the contest, that she would turn it over to the club building fund.

Mrs. Hutchinson stated that the first Tuesday in November would be the open forum meeting, at which time City Manager Reeves would be present and talk on "The Problems of Glendale."

Offer $21,000 for Property

Mrs. O. O. Clark, secretary, was asked to read a communication which had been received from Kelly & Van Arsdol, who, on behalf of a client, offered the amount of $21,000 for the three lots owned by the club at Brand boulevard and Lexington drive, and inclosing a check for $500 signed by Thomas D. Watson and W. L. Taylor. The decision of the club members on this matter was that the offer be refused. A motion carried to the effect that for the next thirty days the club would consider offers of not less than $30,000 net for these three lots.

In regard to the purchase by the club of the property at Central avenue and Lexington drive, Mrs. A. P. Findlay reported that 370 signatures of club members had been obtained, which was way over the required number necessary, and that only three members interviewed had opposed the purchase of this property, and that the deal had been put in escrow.

Entertainer is Presented

Mrs. A. M. Williams announced the bazaar to be given by the club December 7, after which Mrs. Hutchinson introduced the entertainer of the afternoon, Miss Frieda Peycke, who is a musician and composer of note, as well as a very charming reader. The numbers read by Miss Peycke, with piano accompaniment of her own composition, included the following: "Let's Play," "Thanksgiving Guests," "The Owl," "A Fable," which was a "take-off" on the high cost of living and is supposedly staged in the barnyard between the hen and the cow, "How Time Flies," "About Clocks," "Sweet Pea Bonnett," "The Lure of the Desert," "The Reward of the Cheerful Candle," "The Night After Christmas," "James," "My Dog," "Mother Dear," "When Music Heavenly Made Was Young," "The Woes of a Boy," "Oh, Shaw, Maw."

Especially delightful and pleasing were the little boy and little girl pieces included in the above as they were given by Miss Peycke.

The piano used was a Knabe Grand which had been furnished for the occasion through the courtesy of the Barnes-Shuck Music company.

The floral decorations of the stage, which consisted of large baskets and bouquets of cosmos and dwarf chrysanthemums, were artistically placed by the decoration committee, under the direction of Mrs. R. D. Angelica, chairman.

VISIT MANY STATES ON TRIP LASTING FOR SIX MONTHS

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McElroy at Home From Long Journey; Say Glendale Best

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McElroy, 510 South Adams, returned Sunday night from a six months' trip to the east. They went by way of New Orleans and Florida, then up along the Atlantic coast via Washington, Philadelphia, Atlantic City, New York and Boston to Portland, Me., and on into the White Mountains. Returning they came through Albany, Niagara, Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Chicago, Minneapolis and the Canadian Pacific to the coast; then made numerous stops along the Pacific coast on the way home.

They traveled through twenty-eight states, besides eastern and western Canada. They stopped in all the cities and towns, also resorts of interest along the route, more than sixty in number, and took a leisurely method of seeing the country. Their longest stop was made in Washington City where they remained a month, in other large cities from one to two weeks.

Encounter Warm Weather

The only thing that marred the pleasure of the trip was the extremely warm weather encountered while in some large cities, more particularly New York, Boston and Chicago.

The most interesting part of the trip, they say, was the Canadian Rockies with rests at Banff and Lake Louise in the wonderfully rugged mountains, followed by a visit to the quiet waters of Puget Sound, with the many heavily timbered islands near Vancouver and Victoria. The pleasure of this part of the trip was enhanced by the coloring of the foliage at this season of the year.

Business conditions in the east seem to be improving slightly. They are still complaining of hard times; but many seem to find money to spend for pleasure and amusement, they state.

Not Much Building

There is comparatively little building going on in the other parts of the country. The places showing most activity in that line were Washington City, Baltimore, Atlantic City and Portland, Oregon. Those showing least were Chicago and Boston, they say.

Traveling expenses were less and the cost of living seemed more reasonable all along the Pacific coast than any place visited east of the Rocky mountains.

They report having had a wonderfully fine trip and enjoyed it all, but are glad to return to Glendale, where there is greater activity in a building way and more real comforts to be had in real living than in any other place visited. They deem themselves very fortunate to have selected such a pleasant city in which to spend their remaining days.

Constance Talmadge T. D. & L. Attraction

Of all the causes for divorce there is yet to be found a plaint as strange as that found in the story of "Wedding Bells," Constance Talmadge's latest picture, released as an Associated First National Picture attraction and which is now showing at the T. D. & L. Palace Grand theatre.

The reason for the divorce of Rosalie Wayne, which part is interpreted by Constance Talmadge, and Reginald Carter, played by Harrison Ford, was one of two-fold importance. In the first place, Rosalie bobbed her hair. In the second place Reginald caught a case of measles.

All of which follows a married life of only two days, preceded by an impulsive marriage which itself was brought about on account of Rosalie's pet poodle Pinkie.

Palm Beach and New York City are the locations in which most of the action takes place.

The other features of the program are "Tricked," a Northwest Mounted Police story, Kinograms, and Henri Monnet at the Wurlitzer.

Dr. C. M. Crist Again Selected for Pastor of First Methodist

Members of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Glendale are rejoicing today in the definite re-appointment of Dr. C. M. Crist as their pastor by the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which closed in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon.

Rev. J. C. Livingston was appointed to the Casa Verdugo Methodist church to succeed Dr. E. O. Thayer of Eagle Rock, who is not a member of the official conference and has been devoting himself to church work here until a regular appointment could be made. Within a few days Rev. Livingston will arrive to take charge of his new church.

On account of the retirement of Rev. W. W. Cookman from the pastorate of the West Glendale Methodist church, Rev. H. G. Preston of Moorpark, California, has been appointed to this post. It is understood that Rev. Cookman will continue to live in this city. His address is 215 South Pacific avenue.

Dr. V. Hunter Brink, 1124 South Central avenue, was returned to the Central Avenue Methodist church. He has been pastor there for a number of months.

Dr. C. M. Crist was retained as chairman of a committee to continue its investigation into plans for the furtherance of the scope of the Maclay College of Theology at the University of Southern California. Dr. J. F. Fisher was appointed dean of this institution by the conference.

Carl C. Seitter, A. B., joined the conference and was confirmed in his appointment as director of religious director at the central church. He is full of enthusiasm for his new work.

Over 300 ministers attended the conference. Rev. W. A. Betts, pastor of the University Methodist church of Los Angeles where the conference was held, was the host. The delegation from the Pasadena district was glad to be able to make many favorable reports in regard to benevolences and centenary matters.

Last year several adjustments were made after the close of the conference. Bishop Leonard stated positively yesterday that no changes would be made after the appointments had been made this year.

Mrs. J. M. Fife Is Hostess on Daughter's Birthday

Mrs. J. M. Fife of 517 North Jackson street entertained with a party Tuesday afternoon in celebration of the seventh birthday anniversary of her daughter, Mildred. The guests included Alice Ayars, Elsa Cohen, Gabrielle Bondaux, Roberta Cowan, Barbara Chandler, Catherine Evans, Alice Fuelscher, Lottie Hudson, Barbara King, Helen McCormick, Fern Johnston, James Lee Henderson, Jean Lyans, Russell Newton, Merle Newton, Albert Newton, Catherine Peck, Mildred Randolph, Mary Kermott and Ardis Weidelick. Decorations were carried out in the Hallowe'en motif.

The table, where refreshments of ice cream, cake, candy and nuts were served, was decorated in yellow and black, with black cats, witches and owls for place cards and yellow and black nut baskets. The children amused themselves during the afternoon with games on the lawn in front of the Fife residence. Little Miss Mildred Fife received many tokens of remembrance from her little friends.

Mrs. Albert E. Main Is Surprised on Birthday

Mrs. Albert E. Main was pleasantly surprised by a birthday party held at her home, 469 Hawthorne street, last night. After the guests arrived and best wishes were given, the party repaired to the "Puss'n Boots" cafeteria, 211½ South Brand boulevard, where a delicious dinner was enjoyed.

The latter part of the evening was spent at the home on Hawthorne street, where music and a social hour were enjoyed. Mrs. Main received many beautiful flowers and gifts. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wombley, Miss Lillian Young and Albert Young, all of Los Angeles.

An automatic coupler which connects the steam, air, signal, electric light and telephone lines on trains without manual aid of any kind, has been invented.

Where the Laundry-wagon Calls Regularly the Doctor Comes Seldom

In figuring up washday expenses there is an item rightly chargeable which many women overlook.

That item is doctor bills—of all causes that bring complications to women at this season of the year there are none so potent as washday in the home.

Think it over for a moment—first, the heavy work; then the moist air, damp cellar, and wet feet; finally the running in and out from a warm, steamy house, to a cool outdoors. Is it a wise risk to take; a fair price to pay?

JOHN ROBERT WHITE SAYS BUSINESS IN EAST IMPROVING

Glendale Man, Back From His Buying Trip, Sees Plenty of Prosperity Signs

That industrial conditions in the far east are fast improving and that the country will probably recover from all the economic tangles before the depression is felt in this part of California, is the cheerful message brought to Glendale people by Assemblyman John Robert White, 347 North Orange street, who has just returned from a business trip of three weeks, which took him to Chicago, Philadelphia, New York and Boston. The trip was taken to make purchases for the California Furniture company, Los Angeles, and it gave the assemblyman a good opportunity to study the conditions in the middle west and east.

"The feeling in Chicago, Philadelphia, New York and Boston is very good," said Assemblyman White, "and business is getting better. I was in several of the large stores of these cities and talked with the leading business men and they all think the worst is over and that we are now on the rise. Out here we haven't experienced any such depression as an aftermath of the war and the way it looks now the country stands a good chance of recovering without this section getting hit at all.

Industrial Conditions

"Of especial interest to me was the improvement in the industrial conditions of the east. The weavers at the Wilton Mills went out on a strike seven months ago because the wages were reduced twenty per cent. Every one came back to work the first of September at the reduced wage and now with piece work being done in the mills, the men are making more money now than they were at the former wage when production was limited. This is also true in other factories of the east and the laborer is getting more contented, and the factories are turning out more goods than formerly.

Labor Conditions Better

"The improvement in labor conditions and the output of our kind of textiles of course was of particular interest to me. Everything seems to be getting adjusted on a pre-war basis and it will not be long before conditions caused by the war will be settled and economic conditions will be become more stabilized.

"Of course my trip was in the interest of the company I represent and I purchased a large number of choice Oriental rugs for the company. These rugs have been sent out here by express and are arriving now. Incidentally, the express rates on Oriental rugs are no higher than freight rates and this will permit the company to put the rugs on the market right away. The rugs will be on exhibit during the style show week in Los Angeles."

Midgets and Covina In Football Battle Today

The regular Central league lightweight football game between the local Midgets and the Covina 130-pounders, which was scheduled to take place yesterday afternoon, was postponed at the last moment, due to the receiving of a notice from the Covina faculty stating that school had been dismissed all day and that no gatherings could be held on the grounds. The reason for the sudden postponment was because yesterday had been set aside for Teachers' Institute day, which is an occasion when the faculty members meet to "dope out schemes to pound something into our beans," according to one of the local knowledge-hungry students.

The calling off of the game did not in any way mean a holiday for the local "knights of the pass and buck," however, as Coach Butterfield gave them enough to occupy their young minds by sending them into a half hour's scrimmage with the first team of huskies. Although the big fellows rolled up a large score against their smaller opponents it was decidedly not a walk away. The Midgets fought every inch of the way, several of them showing up exceptionally well on the defensive.

Yesterday's contest will be played at Covina this afternoon. Butterfield planning to leave the school with his squad at 2:30 o'clock. According to present opinion throughout the league, if Glendale coms out on top in today's struggle they will be the favorites to cop the season's pennant.

Glendale Avenue People to Meet on Friday Night

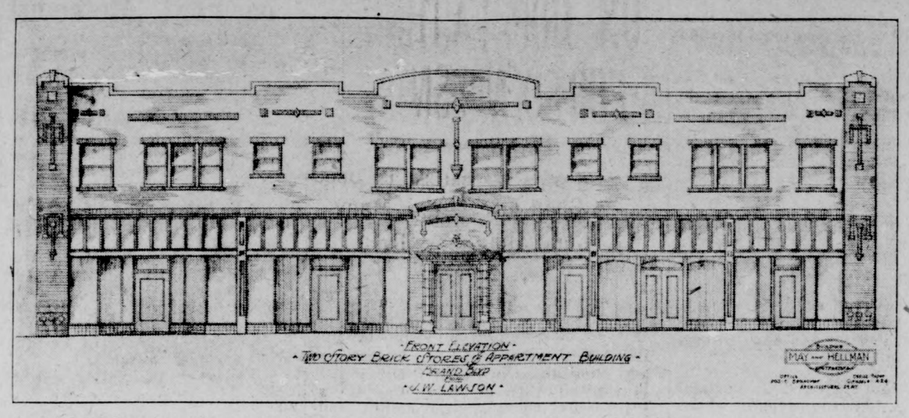
Glendale avenue residents hope it won't rain Friday night. They are going to have a meeting of their improvement association at 8 o'clock in the council chambers of the city hall. That is, if it doesn't rain.

According to Attorney Harry C. Levey, president of the association, he was the only person present at the last meeting other than a representative of The Glendale Evening News as the inclement weathr kept the populace indoors.

A petition has been prepared setting forth suggestions for the improvement and civic betterment of the Glendale avenue district and committees will be appointed at Friday night's meeting to go after signatures so that the matter may be presented to the city council.

The average age of penitentiary inmates is 19 years, according to statistics recently supplied by the New York state prison commission.

Business Block and Apartments Will Be Soon Constructed on West Side of Brand Boulevard, Between Wilson and California



Architect's drawing of two-story business block and apartments for John W. Lawson, to be erected on the west side of Brand, between Wilson and California avenues, the design being provided by May & Hellman, 205 East Broadway. There will be five stores and sixteen apartments, it is proposed.

Work will soon start on a two story business block on the west side of North Brand boulevard, between Wilson and California avenues, on the property owned by John W. Lawson of Monrovia. The structure, as designed by May & Hellman, 205 East Broadway, will consist of five stores on the first floor and sixteen apartments on the second.

The new addition to the thriving business section of Glendale will have a front of 100 feet and a depth of 62 feet. Three of the store buildings will each be 16½ by 60 feet, and the other two will be 24½ by 60 feet. The walls will be of common brick, and riffle brick trimmed with artificial stone on the Brand boulevard front. Large plate glass windows will be installed and prism lighting will be employed. The base of all the store fronts will be of Bachelder tile and the entrances will be of mosaic tile.

An artificial stone entrance with marble wainscoting in the lobby, will lead to a broad staircase, which in turn leads to a spacious apartment hall on the second floor. All the apartments will have hardwood floors.

The heating system will be the Potter gas radiation which will furnish an abundance of heat for all apartments. Each apartment will have installation for hot and cold water furnished from a single unit heating plant. A bath room, with complete bath facilities, is included in the design for each apartment. The bath room floors and base will be either of tile or composition.

The kitchen design for each apartment will be a model of the California type, giving all to be desired in the very latest features. Where space is available, breakfast nooks have been provided.

In working out the plan, the designers have paid particular attention to arrangement for plenty of light, and all apartments will be amply lighted, either into the open or leading into spacious courts.

One unique and very desirable feature in the plans is the elimination of small air ducts, or air shafts, which are so often found in this type of building. Mr. May points out that special care has been taken to eliminate this fault and the result will be a very desirable feature seldom to be found in structures built after somewhat similar plans.

It has been the object of the designers from the very start to make this building a model of its type in the arrangement, utilizing small space to the best advantage.

Work will be rushed along as fast as possible on this large building, as the need of store buildings is increasing daily as new business enterprises desire to branch out and as for the apartments, the many real estate offices are being besieged daily by numerous applicants who desire to rent houses in the city.

Glendale is growing by leaps and bounds, and it is reported in real estate circles that additional business blocks are now under contemplation for immediate building. The best feature of the present rapid growth of the city, it is pointed out, is that the growth is natural and consistent, combining with it the element of long and continued prosperity for Glendale.

Reception Takes Place

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held, during which friends of the young couple showered them with best wishes. Refreshments including punch and a large wedding cake were served by three cousins of the bride, Mrs. Etta Ingledue, Miss Grace Ingledue and Mrs. John College.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left this morning on the steamer "Harvard" for San Francisco on their honeymoon trip. After their return to Glendale they will be at home to their friends at 213 North Isabel street until their new home on East Palmer avenue near Glendale avenue is completed.

Officers Chosen at Troop Meeting; Merit Badges Are Awarded

Mothers of the Troop were special guests of the Glendale Girl Scouts Troop No. 1, at their regular meeting at the Congregational church on Tuesday afternoon. Following the scout ceremony a business meeting was held, Amy Bainbridge presiding. Election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows: Amy Bainbridge, treasurer; Lucile Beach, secretary. The retiring officers, Mary Stanley, secretary, and Lucile Allen, treasurer, were presented with gold scout pins by the troop as a token of appreciation of past service.

Merit badges for cooking and sewing were presented to Mary Stanley, for child nursing, and music to Lucile Allen; gold stars for perfect attendance have been won by Lina Borthick, and Margaret Longley for twelve months' perfect attendance and by Amy Bainbridge for nine months' perfect attendance.

One of the counselors for the troop, Mrs. A. S. Chase, spoke a few words in commendation of the work of the troop. A very pleasant social hour followed with light refreshments served by the girls.

Guests present were Mrs. Charles A. Parker, Mrs. E. J. Allen, Mrs. N. H. Stanley, Mrs. Charles L. Chandler, Mrs. E. R. Naudain, Mrs. Grey, Mrs. C. W. Houston, Mrs. William R. Stofft and mother, Mrs. Boughtman, Mrs. E. E. Dana, Mrs. W. O. Borthick, Mrs. Randolph Bainbridge, Mrs. Carrie Hunt, Mrs. A. S. Chase, Mrs. F. A. Beach, Mrs. C. C. Cooper, Mrs. Browne, Mrs. Harry V. Attention to Hair of Importance, Is Claimed

Stanley R. Herdman, formerly a local advertising man, but now engaged in manufacturing human hair products at 118 North Louise street, lays much stress on the importance of caring for and dressing the hair.

"A woman's hair," he states, "is nine-tenths of her beauty and many a husband has been either won or lost by the attention that has been given the hair. A woman may wear a 'million dollar' evening gown, but if she hasn't enough hair to do up properly she won't be considered beautiful. The same woman in a gingham dress and sufficient hair to do up, and does it up in the proper style, will be admired by all. Glendale has many beautiful women and our line of human hair goods is going to do much in beautifying many more."

Visitors From Indiana Are Being Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weidelich of 634 North Kenwood street are entertaining as their houseguests Mrs. C. A. Keller and daughter of South Bend, Indiana, and Mrs. Keller's son, Homer Keller of Fresno. The party, which will remain here for a week, are enjoying their visit with various entertainments, dinners and scenic automobile trips throughout southern California.

Mrs. Keller and daughter are enjoying a six weeks' visit in California, they having arrived at Mr. Keller's home in Fresno from Indiana two weeks ago. The trip south to Glendale was made via automobile, they having left last Friday and arriving here Saturday afternoon.

CITY SCHOOL BONDS WIN APPROVAL BY 957 TO 67 VOTE

without delay. This was a ratio of one to 46 in favor of the bonds.

R. D. White Is Happy

"This is a happy morning," declared Richardson D. White, superintendent of schools, this morning with a smile. "Members of the board of education and those connected with the school are much pleased with the result of the election. D. J. Hibben, president of the grammar school board, and Mrs. John Robert White, president of the Glendale Parent Teachers' Association, are both highly elated. There had been little doubt that the bonds would carry all right but the size of the majority came as a most pleasant surprise.

"The votes will be canvassed officially according to state law at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, October 18 at the Intermediate school by the board of education. The members of the board will be anxious to return to their daily tasks and I do not think any further action will be taken beyond notifying the county board of education of the approval of the bonds.

Sold Through County Board

"The county board of supervisors places all school bonds on the market. Even the school bonds for the Los Angeles district are sold through the county board of supervisors. Of course, they advertise for bids as soon as possible. The rapidity with which the bonds are sold depends a little on the bond market. If it remains as it is now, there will be no trouble in disposing of them."

The next regular meeting of the board of education will be held Tuesday, October 25, two weeks from last night. Superintendent White predicted that definite steps probably would be taken at this time to start carrying out the program of expansion according to the plans formulated by the citizens' committee of nineteen as announced in the pre-election campaign.

"I think the first move will be to purchase the land the school board proposed to buy," remarked Superintendent White. "One of the first considerations will be the selection of an architect. This usually is a difficult matter because the board will meet many of them. The board expressed itself at the last meeting as favoring a local architect provided other qualifications were equal.

"I don't see any reason why building should not commence as soon as the money as available. It is my opinion that it ought to be possible to actually start building operations in ninety days. I don't think they could be started sooner."

In general the election was very quiet and uneventful—beyond the victory. There was practically no electioneering. Members of the P.-T. A. had canvassed their districts previously and a number of the voters were brought to the polls in autos.

James Watt's tools still lie just as he left them a hundred years ago in his attic workshop at Heathfield Hall, near Birmingham, England. It is proposed to preserve this sanctuary of science to the British nation.

PICTURESQUE COURT IS COMPLETED BY NEWTON SMITH

Brittany Architecture Is Used to Good Advantage; Many Congratulations Given

Brittany, France, is noted for its picturesque ivy clad rumbling cottages, lack of plumbing and gossipy villagers.

"Brittany Court," Glendale, is noted for its picturesque cottages also—but they are thoroughly modern and their tenants have no intention of becoming gossipy.

When Newton Smith conferred with Baldwin & Sons, 504 Raleigh street, in regard to the erection of a group of white stucco trimmed with gray; four rooms, one story, steep gabled cottages with green asphalt shingles in modified old English or northern French architecture, one of his "friends" facetiously remarked that they would be "a blotch on the landscape."

Now that the "Brittany Court," 724-738 North Brand boulevard, is almost finished Mr. Smith is proudly showing his friends about the new premises and receiving their congratulations upon its artistic and distinctive appearance.

View Is Excellent One

At the end of the courtyard, which is undergoing a course of landscape gardening at the present time, is located a two-story house of the same type as the others on each side of the court. Its first and second floors are separate units and each of its rooms is slightly larger than those in the smaller cottages. The view of the hills from the second floor is particularly fine.

Most of the windows of the cottages are of the French type opening inward and protected upon the exterior by a low iron grille. The front doors each contain a large center panel of oak.

Shutters ventilate each of the gabled attics. Mr. Smith asserts that this circulation of air will keep the interiors warm in winter and cool in summer. Nevertheless, gas radiators with concrete flues to carry off the fumes, have been installed.

Delicately Tinted Paper

The interiors have been papered with delicately tinted wall paper with especial regard to color harmony. Much of the woodwork is painted in either French gray, white or green. This is set off by carefully chosen wall paper of suitable tint. The bathrooms, each of which contains a built-in tub and medicine closet, are finished in glistening white plaster.

The disappearing bed, which revolves into a closet opening off the living room is not attached to the door, which is full sized, in order that there may be no suggestion of a bedroom about the room during the day time. Behind the bed is a dressing room, containing room for dressing table and wardrobe. This may be entered through a door from the hall opposite the bathroom.

Every built-in feature imaginable is incorporated in the design of the interior. The kitchens contain folding and disappearing breakfast tables and ironing boards. Upon a small enclosed back porch is located a stationary wash tub and the automatic hot water heater.

The cottages, which have been finished, are being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McClellan; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Rea; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McQuiston, and Mrs. Francis T. Graham and her son, Robin Graham.

La Canada Valley Farm Bureau Center Meeting

On Tuesday afternoon, October 18, at 2 o'clock, the La Canada Valley Farm Bureau Center will hold its first fall meeting at the La Canada school grounds. An excellent program has been arranged including talks by Farm Adviser Hodgson on the subject of "The Deterioration of Citrus Orchards, Causes and Prevention," and W. S. Rosecrans, newly elected president of the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau, on "Some Phases of Farm Bureau Work." Election of officers will also be held at that time.

W. M. Tolman Secures Home, Opens Business

In addition to the present line of goods being carried by Mr. Tolman, the Pohlson gifts will be added, a line of goods which includes unique and artistic Christmas gifts.

Postoffice Predicament
Toilers in Demand Here
Voters Do Right Thing
Build for Permanency

By Gil A. Cowan

WHEN a high postal official says in effect that he has "never seen a city of size similar to Glendale in such a predicament" regarding facilities offered by the local branch of the Los Angeles postoffice, it is high time that the citizens were aroused to the indignity being heaped upon this thriving community by the government of the United States.

For more than eight years to the writer's personal knowledge the people here have been galled by the service, or rather lack of service, foisted upon them by the postmaster of an adjoining metropolis. Probably he is not to blame, nor are the clerks, but the system which permits unquestionably bad conditions to become worse should not be tolerated.

Employes at the Glendale branch are accommodating; they are willing to do all they possibly can to give service. But, after all, they are just employes; they are not executives. They cannot be blamed for the service outlined by their superiors.

Inspectors have visited Glendale and expressed surprise, recommended improvements and done their duty by filing reports with Washington officials. The latter pass the complaints on to the Los Angeles postmaster and there the matter ends. Why should Harrington Brown or P. P. O'Brien, or anyone of a half dozen others in official capacity in Los Angeles worry about Glendale?

To be brutally frank with these men, THEY DO NOT CARE! The worst that can happen insofar as Glendale is concerned is for the department heads at Washington, D. C., to give this city an independent postoffice. Such action would relieve the Los Angeles postmaster of a thorn, but in no way make him subject for the guillotine.

Not until Washington realizes that a rank injustice is being worked on the fastest growing city in America will Glendale get what it deserves—a postmaster of its own to rectify the service. If Will Hays, the postmaster general, or Dr. Hubert Work would spend eight hours, not eight years, in Glendale with a view of remedying the postal service locally their intelligence would appreciate keenly that the first essential is a postmaster.

By this time Dr. Work should know that if there was a postmaster here he would not have the many complaints about the service filed with him by the Chamber of Commerce. It is about time somebody woke up and learned for what the government pays salaries, furnishes offices, desks, etc.

Certainly not to preach false economy to an educated community such as Glendale. Congressman Walter F. Lineberger by this time knows that Glendale is GOING TO HAVE A POSTOFFICE OF ITS OWN or know a better excuse than any yet offered.

Hard-handed sons of toil are hard to find in Glendale.

Such is the report of W. R. Phelon, manager of the Southern California Gas company offices here. The market in Glendale for common labor is oversold because of building activities.

Utter strangers come to this city today and tomorrow usually finds them at work. Hundreds of workers who have been employed in Los Angeles are transferring their interests here. Increase in population by the thousands this year seemingly has no tendency to bring wages down, but only emphasizes existent prosperity.

And thousands more are coming this winter—yes, headed for Glendale—which means that a great community is to bloom here where two decades ago the fertile fields were given over to the growing of grapes and barley.

Speaking of Glendale's growth, the citizens yesterday voted $260,000 city school bonds by the largest majority ever given any proposition. Think of spending more than a quarter million dollars without argument, almost. Yet that is exactly what happened.

Yesterday's election conclusively shows the oneness of this community. When progress and prosperity are concerned, the voters will do the right thing. However, their confidence must be maintained and those to whom the bond moneys are entrusted should see that every dollar is spent as pledged.

From practically every real estate office here comes word that the demand for lots is increasing daily. Houses also are muchly wanted, but in the majority of cases the newcomers prefer to buy vacant property and build their own homes after some particular design or desire.

The demand for lots is looked on as the most encouraging factor in Glendale's advancement because people who buy lots and erect homes to their own taste are the residents who make Glendale their permanent home.

Sales Tax as Basis for Finances, Is Plea

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The sales tax as a basis for real and lasting revision and simplification of the present cumbersome system of taxation imposed upon the American people by the world war, was urged upon the senate by Senator Reed Smoot, Republican, of Utah, a member of the senate finance committee.

Senator Smoot's plan embodies a direct manufacturers' and producers' tax of 3 per cent. He proposed it as a substitute for the pending tax revision bill, and the Republican compromise, which is to replace it.

Although he does not anticipate that his proposal will command a majority vote, Senator Smoot is satisfied that not later than next year the sales tax will be adopted as the keystone of the American tax system.

The Smoot plan calls for the creation of six main sources of revenue: Manufacturers' and producers' sales tax; individual income tax; corporation tax; customs duties imposed by the tariff; inheritance or estate tax and tobacco tax.

Free Tolls for U. S. Vessels Pass Senate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12. — The Borah bill providing free tolls for American vessels using the Panama canal was passed by the senate late yesterday. The bill now goes to the house, where action on it is expected to be deferred until after the conference on limitation of armaments, Pacific and far eastern questions. The vote was 47 to 37.

SEEKS SECRET ORDER QUIZ

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—A congressional investigation of every secret organization in the United States is asked in a resolution introduced in the house by Representative Upshaw of Atlanta. The resolution provides for the summoning of the chief officials of such organizations before a joint congressional committee that would be appointed to investigate them. Under the resolution, every state would be called upon by congress to furnish the name of every secret organization, chartered or unchartered, which may be operating within its borders.

PRESIDENT PUSHES LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

Tariff Bill to Be Passed as 'Promptly as Possible,' Administration Plan

By U. S. Press Association

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 12.—President Harding has given senate leaders to understand that he expects them to carry out the legislative program without consideration of an adjournment for the armament conference. Adjournment on November 10 would mean that the legislative program would be narrowed down to four measures, namely, the treaties of peace with Germany, Austria and Hungary, the tax bill, the Borah Panama canal tolls bill and the anti-beer bill, leaving the railroad funding bill, the allied debt refunding bill, the tariff and other measures to go over till the next session. The Panama canal tolls bill and the treaties are on for immediate attention. Prospects are that the rest of October will have to be devoted to the tax bill, and, if it is radically amended, as now seems likely, considerable time will be spent in adjusting it in conference.

Immediately following the passage of the tax bill, the anti-beer bill will be brought up, and this is likely to lead to a continuation of the filibuster which has been going on against the measure from time to time for several months. As soon as the beer bill is out of the way, the railroad bill will be brought up. It is doubtful whether either the allied debt refunding bill or the tariff will be reached at the present session.

The Tariff Bill

The tariff bill will be passed "as promptly as possible," according to Senator Penrose, chairman of the committee of finance. However, the house ways and means committee, believing that the bill would not become a law this session, has decided in favor of extending the emergency tariff, which expires November 27. Senator Penrose says that stories that the administration, or elements in congress, are seeking to kill the bill, or to delay it indefinitely, are without foundation. He announced that hearings would begin November 1 on the livestock sections of the measure, and would continue from then on. A conference will be held, he said, between members of the finance committee and the ways and means committees of the house on sections of the bill which are causing trouble.

Settling With Railroads

Secretary Mellon says that more than $100,000,000 of railroad equipment trust certificates have been sold. As a result of sales already made, the administration has sufficient funds to make payments to carriers where final agreement has been reached as to the respective amounts owed to each other by the government and the railroads. The railroad administration originally had about $380,000,000 of equipment trust certificates. It is believed that a second $100,000,000, or a total of at least $200,000,000, will have been sold within the next few weeks. The certificates pay 6 per cent return in interest and must be marketed by the government at par or better. At present the debt of the railroads to the government is held to balance the debt of the government to the railroads. As the railroad claims are paid off from the amounts received by the sales of equipment trust certificates, new bonds are to be issued by the carriers, so that the government will continue to have collateral to be held against the sum owed to the government which will be funded. The new bonds will draw 6 per cent interest, the same as that payable to holders of the equipment trust certificates.

C. OF C. DIRECTORS ORDER FORD FOR HELPING WORK

Assistant Secretary to Have Auto; Routine Business Is Under Consideration

Purchase of a Ford sedan was ordered by the board of directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon. It will facilitate the work of Assistant Secretary E. F. Sanders, who is in charge of membership. For three weeks the subject of an official car has been considered and Secretary James M. Rhoades in bringing the matter to a climax, told the board that the machine would pay for itself within ninety days.

Director Daniel Campbell made the motion which adds 'Lizbeth Ann Ford to the membership and the equipment committee will complete the deal. On motion of Director Roy L. Kent, the Chamber will renew the membership of the Greater Glendale Development Association in the League of the Southwest which is working for the development of the Colorado river territory.

Invited to Road Opening

An invitation was received by the Chamber from Supervisor Henry W. Wright for members to attend the opening of the Malibu road on Saturday, October 15. A barbecue will feature the affair.

Directors J. G. Huntley, Owen C. Emery and V. M. Hollister were named a committee to wait upon the city council and ascertain the progress being made with the swimming pool park bonds. Directors J. A. Newton, George E. Bentley and S. C. Packer were appointed representatives of the Glendale Chamber in the San Fernando Valley Associated Chambers of Commerce.

Director Roy L. Kent brought up the subject of conducting a drive this fall for a first class Boy Scout council in Glendale. He was assured that both Secretaries Rhoades and Sanders and the Chamber at large would lend their support to the project.

An auto camp ground, postal service and water rates and the railroad situation also were discussed.

Bert Levey Vaudeville Program Makes Big Hit

A great big satisfied smile spread over Glendale yesterday with the first showing here of Bert Levey circuit standard vaudeville. The Glendale Theatre was packed last night by amusement seekers and not one went home without feeling that Manager W. A. Howe is affording wonderful shows for the money.

Burton & Dyer in Captain Kidd's Kids kept the audience in an uproar, the burlesque on "Oh What a Pal Was Mary" being the laugh-hit of the year. In "The Fortune Queen" the dancing of a beautiful girl and harmony of the male quartet proved pleasing. Galloway & Garrett in a black and tan classic went over well with the able assistance of Paul Carson at the organ during their "Home Sweet Home" number.

Paul Rondas rode a bicycle and played a banjo at the same time, closing his act with piano accordeon numbers and Al Striker, contortionist, did something unusual in the way of balancing.

The Bert Levey acts play over Poli, Shubert and Gus Sun time in the East, thereby assuring the brightest and newest programs known to the coast. Last night's acts jump from Glendale to Milwaukee, Wis., and will be seen in leading eastern theatres this winter.

One of the biggest assets to the Glendale Theatre programs will be Mr. Carson's organ accompaniment for many of the acts. It is equal to an orchestra, patrons declare.

Outdoor Picture Is Feature Attraction at Glendale Tonight

The biggest outdoor picture of the year, Nell Shipman in "The Girl From God's Country," will show at the Glendale Theatre, starting today.

Nell Shipman is star, author and director of this picture, and her work in two entirely different roles offers theatregoers the dramatic treat of the decade in motion pictures.

Thrilling scenes galore have been provided in this picture, and the sensational battle in airplanes 6000 feet in the air will offer something new in the melodramatic type of picture.

Brownie, the Nell Shipman bear, and the usual array of animal actors are in evidence in "The Girl From God's Country." Their work in this picture will delight grown-ups and children alike.

Many of the scenes were taken in the Canadian North Woods, where beautiful snow effects provide unusual backgrounds.

Pathe News and a "Tweedy" comedy complete the film bill, while Paul Carson will play "The Land of the Sky Blue Water," on the organ as it is illustrated on the screen.

J. W. Hilton Declares Plenty of Work Here

J. W. Hilton, plasterer, sprawled upon the ground on the shady side of the "bungalette" he is constructing at 413 West Arden avenue, just south of the Wash, leaned upon the mortar trowel with which he was putting the final touches upon a cement basement window sill and soliloquized:

"There's too darn much work in this town. I'm going to have to move away or do something. I'll never get this place finished if people don't leave me alone and quit insisting on my going off some place to work for them. I can't work but one place at a time. If I was cut up into pieces, I suppose I could wiggle a little bit in each place. I have turned down enough work in the last two months to last six months.

"I was in the Denver and Wichita booms, but I believe Glendale is the best town I ever was in. This soft, mild climate sort of 'gets me.' I didn't like it much at first. When you get this 'salt' in your system, it's hard to get it out. If I moved probably I would be right back again—but I don't figure on moving.

F. H. Reed New Owner Broadway Seed Store

The Broadway Seed Store, 626 East Broadway, which has been operated by I. J. Watson, has been purchased by F. H. Reed and son, Ernest, and the store is now being conducted by the new managers. Mr. Watson is as yet undecided where he will locate, but intends to open a picture store somewhere in Glendale, he says.

The Broadway Seed Store was first opened by G. W. Watson, one of the pioneers of Glendale, who died a little over a year ago. In purchasing the store, Mr. Reed announces that he intends to carry a complete line of choice seeds, nursery stock, including trees and shrubs of all kind, and a big supply of poultry feed.

The store will be remodeled and painted as soon as possible and Mr. Reed is planning to carry a large stock to take care of a liberal patronage expected, he says.

De Luxe Auto Top Co. Opens Quarters Here

H. Balestier and H. DuBois are operating the DeLuxe Auto Top company in the new building at 120 South Maryland. They come to Glendale after years of experience with the Don Lee Company and Chanslor Lyons of Los Angeles. Auto upholstering, seat covering, body covering and auto top service will be offered by them to Glendale auto users. The DeLuxe Company will make a specialty of California auto tops and they state that they are in a position to deliver first-class work with little delay.

Nothing is so easy as to deceive oneself; for what we wish that we readily believe.—Demosthenes.

G. BROMLEY OXNAM WILL MAKE TALK TO BROTHERHOOD

Returns From Wide Study of European Affairs; Selected for Banquet Speaker

At the annual meeting of the Federated Brotherhood of Glendale, to be held at the First Methodist church, 140 North Kenwood street, at 8 o'clock next Tuesday night, October 18, G. Bromley Oxnam, who is now engaged in giving a lecture each week at the Church of All Nations auditorium, Los Angeles, will deliver an address on the European situation.

Mr. Oxnam is said to be an authority on the present situation in Europe and has prepared a series of twelve lectures, and from this list one will be chosen for the meeting next Tuesday night.

The announcement that this prominent lecturer has been secured by the Federated Brotherhood should be pleasing news to members, as Mr. Oxnam has a message of vital interest and great value to every thinking American. He was a member of the commission that spent the entire summer in an intensive study of the industrial, social, religious and political situation in Europe.

Meets Prominent People

He met personally the outstanding figures in these fields, among whom were President Ebert, Walter Rathenau, Chancellor Michaelis and Johann Sassenbach in Germany; Arthur Henderson, J. R. Clynes, Ben Spohr, J. H. Thomas, Lord Robert Cecil, Margaret Bondfield, Sidney Webb, G. D. H. Cole, R. H. Tawney, H. J. Laski, Mrs. Annie Besant, P. J. Pybus, Seebohm Rowntree, Ramsay MacDonald, Arthur Greenwood, Lady Astor and a score of others in England; and in addition had access to the confidential reports of the members of the commission who were in Russia, Czecho-Slovakia, Austria, Upper Silesia and Poland.

Tours Japan, China, India

In addition to the European study, Mr. Oxnam recently completed a year's tour in Japan, China and India, during which he studied at first hand the industrial and political conditions of the Orient. The series of twelve lectures which he is now giving weekly at the Church of All Nations, Los Angeles, is a summary of the course which he is giving at present in the University of Southern California, and his lecture here next Tuesday night will be selected from the twelve. The appearance of this lecturer here will afford the men of Glendale an opportunity to learn from an authority the contemporary problems of Europe.

Banquet to Be Served

The Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist church will serve a banquet to the men at 7 o'clock, after which Mr. Oxnam will deliver his lecture. Tickets for the banquet will entitle the holder to hear the lecture and may be secured from A. G. Lindley, 123 South Belmont street, and C. W. Ingledue at the Glendale Market, 630 East Broadway.

A large number is expected to attend the banquet and lecture and hear the European situation, which is so vitally interesting to America right now, discussed by one who has made an intensive and first hand study of the problems, the committee in charge states.

Open Air Schools In Glendale Are Proposed by James W. Pearson

Open air schools are suggested by James W. Pearson, 114 West Broadway, in the following letter to The Glendale News:

"An idea has come to me and I wish to pass it on for what it is worth. It may be worthy of consideration and it may not be.

"For several years residents and property owners of the extreme east have been agitating open air schools. This agitation has been carried on to such an extent that the same has been put into practice; so, that today we find in the extreme east along the Atlantic shore they have open air schools. As I understand it, roof structures are built without side walls so the floors are protected from rainy seasons. Otherwise, there are no high priced buildings to load the taxpayers with more bonds than those necessary to buy ground and erect structures and necessary outside conveniences.

"It seems to the writer that here in sunny California the open air schools would be of more practical use than in the east. It certainly would be more sanitary and, if tried out, we would find the health of children better and any chances for epidemics would be greatly lessened.

"Very truly yours,
"JAMES W. PEARSON."

Hi-Y Group No. 2 In Session; Pick Delegates

About fifteen members of Group 2 of the Glendale Hi-Y society were present last night at the regular weekly meeting of the boys at the Y. M. C. A. headquarters in the T. A. Wright building on East Broadway. G. Edwin Murphy, who is the leader of the group, was in charge of the meeting.

The principal business transacted at the gathering was the selection by the group of Fred Stofft and Fred Hand as delegates to the Glendale Hi-Y council, which is composed of two representatives from each group.

The largest natural underground room in the world is located in Wind Cave, in the Black Hills of South Dakota, and is known as the Fair Grounds. It is several acres in extent.
